

Harold's Spots

Written by Sarah Johnson &
Illustrated by Deborah Hinde

Life Education Trust

Life Education Trust Cambridge/Te Awamutu/King Country has combined with author Sarah Johnson from Raglan and illustrator/designer Deborah Hinde from Wharepapa South, both award winning in their fields, to publish a storybook about our mascot Harold the giraffe. With a teaching partner in tow, Harold and his amazing mobile classroom visit schools nationwide. Through fun interactive sessions, Harold and his friends help young people build their identities and make positive choices in a complex world.

The Story

Harold has always had spots. Until Oxecker decides to do something about them. Will Harold still be Harold without his spots? We are delighted to help spread Harold's message through the story in this book - a story that each of us is precious and wonderful, in our own unique way.

Buying this book supports our trust's work and the many volunteers working to encourage and support school children in New Zealand.

An uplifting story about learning to love the skin you are in - spots and all!
